Collaborate with Community-Based Experts

Engaging young people in checking their credit report helps them learn financial skills for life. They discover:

- What a credit report is and how to read one.
- Why credit reports and credit scores are important to their future financial and other opportunities (like renting an apartment or getting a job).
- How to build a strong credit profile as they age out of care.
- How to dispute errors and protect their credit from identity theft in the future.
